Description of Robert's Rules of Order: Summary of Points and Motions

Motion	Purpose	Example	Vote Needed	Privileged?	Debatable
Call the question/ Previous question	End debate and move to vote	I move to call the question/ I move the previous question	Two Thirds	No	No
Point of order	Requests that the rules be followed	Point of order: the speaker is over time	Ruled by chair	Yes	N/A
Point of information	Allows questions of fact about the business at hand	Point of information: Did the candidate speak to previous office holders?	Ruled by Chair	No	N/A
Point of Personal Privilege	Address issues impairing your ability to participate	Point of personal privilege: Please speak louder	Ruled by Chair	Yes	N/A
Appeal the decision of the chair	Challenges chair's ruling	I move to appeal the decision of the chair	Majority	No	Yes
Reconsider	Considers a vote again	I move to reconsider*	Majority	No	Yes
Recess	Brief Break	I move to recess for 5 minutes	Majority	No	No
Move to extend speaking/question time	Move to extend speaking/question time for all candidates	I move to extend speaking time by 2 minutes per candidate	Majority	No	No
Move to limit debate	Limits the current debate for a certain time or certain number of speakers	I move to limit debate to three more speakers	Two Thirds	No	No

Motions may be made anyone who currently has the floor (the right to speak). The chair will acknowledge the motion and ask for a second. If there is no second, the motion dies for lack of second. If there is a second, an objection may be made. If there is no objection, the motion succeeds by unanimous consent. If an objection is made, the motion is either debated (debatable motion) or goes to vote (non-debatable motion). Privileged Points may interrupt the speaker; cannot be objected to.
