Letter From the Historian

Hello Tau Bates, and congratulations to both our actives and our new electees on making it through this semester so far! To actives, I hope that you're finding ways to engage with the chapter, despite the online format. To our electees, first I want to say congratulations on making it all the way through second general! I, along with the rest of TBP, really do hope you're enjoying your time here so far, and continue to do so in the future.

Now that the events have begun to kick into high gear, I'd like to put out a call for anyone who wishes to share stories of their time in TBP this semester. Whether it's a funny moment from a social event, or something that really inspired you from a professional development one, myself and everyone else would love to hear about it.

Next, I'd like to take a moment to mention that we are nearing the halfway point of this semester within the next few weeks. With midterm exams beginning and midterm evaluations being required, everything can really start to stack up. Just remember that, despite the tough times, you will be able to push through and you will most likely turn out better than you fear.

As a quick out-of-TBP note, did you know that the Ugli has just closed down for the next couple of days due to an outbreak of recluse spiders? It's not relevant to TBP, but it's timely!

As a final note, remember that everyone in TBP is here to help each other learn and grow. If you're having trouble, whether it's academic, interpersonal, or otherwise, please feel open to talk with someone. Every officer has weekly office hours, which can be incredibly useful if you'd like to discuss anything, whether its about TBP or not.

Go Blue!
Matt
