Volume 24, Issue 3

February 4th, 2020

Tau Beta Pi
The Engineering Honor Society

Letter from the Editor

Happy Tau Beta Pituesday, y'all!

By the end of this meeting, you will have met your electee team, AKA the people I strongly suggest you call your TBPals. Allow me to recommend that you use each other as support through the electing process: sign up for events together, remind each other of meetings, work with each other on the electee exam (notice I didn't say "copy"), introduce each other to actives that you've interviewed, and ask each other questions!

Actives – as you remember, the electee teams are consistently voted the #1 most loved part of the electing process. I challenge you to forsake Team Actives today, sit in with an electee team, and relive the good old days! (You needn't be added to their group chat)

- Trash talk Benson
- Don't take Jeopardy too seriously
