Tau Beta Pi
The Engineering Honor Society

Letter from the Editor

Happy Tau Beta Pituesday, everyone!

Today marks the beginning of the Officer Spotlights series! These Spotlights help us start the conversation on nominating and electing a new officer core for next semester. I highly encourage you – even if you’re an electee – to consider taking on a leadership role in TBP! All of our officers are friendly (trust me, I’ve scoped out the group) and would love to answer any questions you’ve got about their positions. Team leads: nominate members of your electee team! Electee candidates: nominate your team leads! Each of you would make an outstanding officer, and we’d be honored to have you. If you don’t agree, shoot me an email at tbp.historian@umich.edu so I can tell you how great you are.

Blue Skies!
Marianne

Good luck on your upcoming midterms!

One time I took Bell to see my friends in Ann Arbor and she was so cozy in the sunlight on the way back, I felt bad to wake her when we got home.

Send me pics of your pets!
