Letter From the Historian

The food smells good in DOW 1013 tonight
Only Tau Bates to be seen
A lecture room of isolation
And it looks like, we're all queens 👑
The wind is howling like the electee teams inside
Couldn't keep it in, Karen knows we tried
Don't let them in, don't let them see
Be the electee you always have to be General meetings don't let them know
Well now they know
TBP, Jeopardy
Can't hold it back anymore
TBP, Jeopardy
Third general's not a bore
Now you know, we're playing Jeopardy today
Let the storm rage on
Don't forget the TBPuzzles by the way

Welcome back electees,

I hope you and your electee team are getting along well so far because unfortunately, Tau Beta Pi does not accept divorce papers. For those of you who attended your first team meetings and have completed your electee questionnaire already, congratulations 🎉. If you could not make it to your team's first meeting, well, your team leads should have already told you what to do so I'm going to save my limited space here for some more spicy TextBP.

TBPhunPhacts! Did you know...

1. Venus is the only planet that rotates clockwise. She's definitely not like the other planets...
2. Orange or orange? The color was actually named after the fruit in the English language.
3. The first speeding ticket was given out in 1896 to a man driving at a whopping 8 miles per hour. What was the speed limit? 2 miles per hour. What a daredevil.
4. Dreamt is the only word in the English language that ends in "mt". What? Reallymt?
5. People from Massachusetts call roundabouts "rotaries" and chocolate sprinkles "jimmies". Feel free to tell them they are incorrect.
