Letter From the Historian

Thanks to everyone who volunteered at the first in-person career fair since 2019 last week, especially our EVPs and career fair chairs! Hopefully you were able to attend and network with companies. Also congrats to the football team for the blowout win over UConn! I hope everyone is doing okay and not too busy with an avalanche of assignments yet as classes start to get into their full swing, and excited for an eventful semester. We have a lot of electees this semester so be sure to sign up for electee interviews or even to be an electee team lead, or a chair! Also, as a reminder, if you have any ideas for the Cornerstone, fill out the form at tbpmi.ga/cstone-contrib. Have a good day!

Go Blue!

One Minute Reads

Today's topic is Queen Elizabeth II, who recently sadly passed away after a 70-year reign.

Queen Elizabeth II served from 1952 to 2022 as reigning monarch of the United Kingdom (England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland) and numerous other realms and territories, as well as head of the Commonwealth, the group of 53 sovereign nations that includes many former British territories. Extremely popular for nearly all of her long reign, the queen was known for taking a serious interest in government and political affairs, apart from her ceremonial duties, and was credited with modernizing many aspects of the monarchy.
