An entrepreneur's journey...by Nick Ruff

“Nick, don't you just do the Cornerstone all day?” Heck no!

Some of you may know my role as co-founder of a local Ann Arbor startup is reaching an exciting time: our website official launches tomorrow! It's been a great pride and joy to develop it from scratch since earlier this year, working with several Ross geniuses and managing our ever-growing team of talented interns. I've learned so much and there's so much still to do.

If you're curious, feel free to check it out at www.myFab5.com - you're getting the sneak peek! We are constantly rolling out bug fixes and things so be ready to help us test and spread the word about this exciting new site for Ann Arbor foodies!

If you're still curious, it's basically a platform (including an iOS app) to rank and review your favorite businesses (starting with restaurants) in the Ann Arbor. As we prepare for a local launch we are currently working hard to internally scale the product for our larger, national ambitions. If you are interesting in giving me feedback or using your skills to help us out (front-end, back-end, web design, marketing, etc), just contact me.

And I ask you... what are your 5 favorite places for late-night food in Ann Arbor?

FUN FUN FUN!

Tau Beta Pi engineers may be known for solving math equations but we aren't terrible at sports either! (As mutually exclusive as those sound).

This year we are signed up for the following sports and in desperate need of new players! At least one guy and girl needed for each team!

- Soccer—Division A—Mondays 7:30pm (Mitchell Field)
- Kickball—Division B—Thursdays 9:30pm (Elbel Field)
- Volleyball—Division B—Thursdays 6:30pm (Elbel Field)

Faculty Recital: Joseph Gramley, percussion

Thursday, 10/4, 8:00pm, Stamps Auditorium

From Prof. Gramley's biography:

Gramley's dynamic and exciting performances as a soloist have garnered critical acclaim and enthusiasm from emerging composers, percussion aficionados and first-time concert-goers alike. His first solo recording, American Deconstruction, an expert rendition of five milestone works in multi-percussion's huge new modern repertoire, appeared in 2000 and was reissued in 2006. His second CD, Global Percussion, was released in 2005.

An invitation from Yo-Yo Ma in 2000 led Gramley to join Mr. Ma's Silk Road Ensemble. In addition to participating in the group's extended residencies in American cities, Gramley has toured with Mr. Ma and the Ensemble throughout North America, Europe and Asia, performing in the world's finest concert halls. Along the way, Gramley has studied percussion styles and instruments from around the globe, collaborating with internationally-renowned musicians from India, Iran, China, Japan, Korea and Central Asia. He has appeared on several top-selling albums with Yo-Yo Ma on the SonyBMG label, and with other members of the Ensemble on the recent Off the Map (In a Circle Records). In November 2008, Gramley and Yo-Yo Ma performed together and guest artists with the Nashville Symphony.

The Show Goes On – Ryan Chen's Senior Euphonium Recital

Sunday, 10/7, 2:00pm, Britton Recital Hall – School of Music

Yo, this is it, y'all. I'm playing my senior recital this upcoming Sunday. The program will include everything from avant-garde contemporary music to jazz to baroque arrangements for New Orleans-style brass band. As you may have guessed, the recital will feature the BlueLine Brass Band, Ann Arbor's favorite dance/jam/lolz band. There will also be a reception with food and refreshments afterward. Come out and enjoy some music presented by yours truly.
