

The Cornerstone

Volume 23, Issue 7

November 19th, 2019

Letter from the Editor

Howdy y'all!

Welcome to Fourth General! I hope that all the electees have bonded a lot after the dumpster fire called “Jeopardy” from Third General. It’s really a learning experience for everyone involved, and it allows the electees to unite against the Vice President (in a fun way though).

I’m pretty busy this week, so I wasn’t able to create any original content for this issue. Instead, I’ve packed it with extra comics and puzzles!

In addition, I’m still looking for Thanksgiving food ideas. If you have any Thanksgiving food ideas or recipes I could try (be it a comical or real suggestion) let me know at tbp.historian@umich.edu!

– Josh Polzin

These are Reed’s dogs! I don’t know what their names are, but they’re cute and cuddly.

Upcoming Events:

Sequoia Place

Nov 20, 6 – 7 PM

TG IV: BWW

Nov 21, 7 – 9 PM

Kiwanis Thrift Store

Nov 23, 9 AM – 1 PM

Ice Skating Mixer

Nov 23, 5:15 – 6:30 PM

Detroit Zoo – Wild Lights

Nov 23, 7 – 10:30 PM

Cub Scouts Day

Nov 24, 10 AM – 6 PM

CAPS Workshop

Nov 26, 5 – 6 PM

SafeHouse Center Ann Arbor

Dec 1, 1 – 5 PM

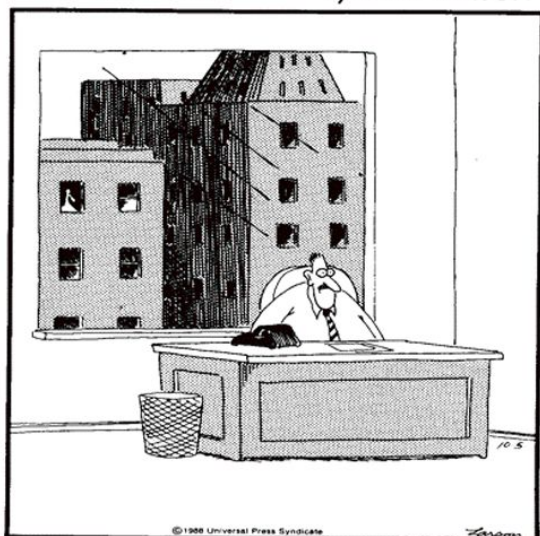

LinkedIn Headshots

Dec 5, 3 - 4 PM

	9			8	3	1
			4				7
7				5
			8				6
9	6		2	7		8	5
2				9
			5				2
4				1
	7	6	9				3

THE FAR SIDE

By GARY LARSON

Anatidaephobia: The fear that somewhere, somehow, a duck is watching you.

"The problem is that your trap is one big macaroni."

	2	8	1		3	7
			9			2
	6				1
	5	4	7			8	1
		1			2
6	9				2	5	3
		6				5
	8				6
		2	3		4	8	6

"Now that desk looks better. Everything's squared away, yessir, squaaaaared away."