

The Cornerstone

Volume 23, Issue 2

September 23rd, 2019

Letter from the Editor

Howdy y'all!

You may have heard of me, but I'm Josh Polzin, also known as Josh the Fantastic or "The Polzinator". I'm going to try to add my own humorous flair to the Cornerstone this semester, so I hope I get at least one chortle out of each of you sometime within the next few months. I hope you enjoy this issue, and please address all unconditional praise or scathing criticism to tbp.historian@umich.edu. I would also accept any pictures of puppies to help me forget about the football game last week against that nameless school that starts with a W.

Tragedy at Career Fair: A Mediocre Limerick Series

The career fair was going just fine
Well, except for the Google line
I stood there for years
Almost grew a full beard
I was shaking like a function of sine

I eventually got to the front
I said, "Just let me be blunt;
I'm a freshman in fall;
I'm not qualified at all;
But Google's the top of my hunt"

She didn't look at my resume too long
She said, "This isn't too strong;
We only hire the best;
And you're one of the rest;
But you should check out Amazon"

The first identity matrix must have been like:

8	9			1		5	3
5		2				4	1
		1	5				9	8
				7	8
	5						8
			4	5
4	2				1	6
	6	7				8		3
	8	3		4			5	2
