

The Cornerstone

Volume 23, Issue 3

October 8th, 2019

Letter from the Editor

Howdy y'all!

It's October now, so that's right: it's SPOOK TIME. To commemorate this wonderful season, I am making all October Cornerstones aggressively Halloween-themed to make sure that everyone remembers to be spooky in this wonderful time. Additionally, if you have any spooky things you'd like to be presented in the cornerstone – such as past costumes or decorations you've made, scary treats, Halloween music recommendations – please let me know at tbp.historian@umich.edu. Have a good October!

Alumni Newsletter writers needed!

I'm looking for people to help me write articles for the alumni newsletter! What is the alumni newsletter, you might be asking? The alumni newsletter is a publication we typically send to alumni 3-4 times a semester that contains info on what our chapter has been doing and any fun updates we might have. There are examples on the website under Publications > Alumni Newsletter.

What am I looking for? I'm looking for testimonial-like articles that would best present our chapter to alumni. This could be things like "My experience at <insert event>" that narratively talks about what you and other people did at that event, or something more personal that describes a project or event that you're proud of and would like to present to the chapter. It could be something totally different too!

The best part is, submitting an article is worth half a service hour. It's a simple, schedule-flexible way to get some supplemental time in.

If you're interested, contact me at tbp.historian@umich.edu!
