Letter from the Editor

Welcome back to another Tuesday!

The leaves are turning, the sun is hiding, and studying outside is becoming less and less feasible. I hope everyone is staying sane as this semester starts to kick in! If your days are lacking in variety, consider signing up for a TBP social event to break the monotony. To those preparing for exams this week and next, good luck to you!

I would imagine that most of the Actives in attendance remember their first Second General meeting fondly. I know I do. Tonight's meeting is where Electee Teams are formed and christened. This is an exciting time in the Electee process, and for me, was where the fun really started. Our Tau Beta Pi chapter is large, and the friends you meet tonight will help make TBP feel a bit smaller. Actives, I encourage you to stick around for the Electee Team games and observe as a guest!

If you have any suggestions, questions, or compliments, you can find me on Slack or email me at tbp.historian@umich.edu.

Study hard!
Andrew
